Volume 5 Chapter 24

Hi, Neyou yo

Chapter 25

...AT THE MOMENT?!!

Hi, this is Takao.
 Thank you for reading volume 2
 of The days I have gone
 by so quickly.
 I am only good
 at filling up 1/4 of the column. This subject is completely unrelated to the story. The other day I left with a friend to Kamagome. Here in Edo (Tokyo), in the Genroku era
 (1686-1704)
 Yodogawa Yodogawa built a garden for the feudal lords. I went to stop back in time. My friend wants to wear their black clothes. By the fifth section of the garden I was being eaten alive by mosquitoes.

BE A MAN

Not like that.

I AM A MAN

FINE! FINE!
DON'T BE AN ADULT!

BE A MAN,
KONAKU!!!

HUH?!

AH!!!

BE A

DAY

KICKED

IS

DO YOU

CAN FORGIVE

Chapter 28

2

Do you guys know? Mosquitos are black in color and the females don't suck blood. However, they are attracted to our breath. They're drawn to it. Also, strangely enough, they love the way our body smells. I'm warning, this is a shoujo manga! I should cry.

Anyway, it's finally volume 5. Ichiko and Toru went to Kamakura. I drew this a month ago when I was in Kamakura. Since I live in the Kanto region, I never really get to sight-see in Kamakura often.
